LET'S LOOK AT RUSSIA HONESTLY

Re letters from Mr. Feighan to Mr. Dulles. In his letter of July 18, he stated that his secretary informed him that on Friday afternoon Col. Stanley Grogan had telephoned, indentifying himself as Mr. Dulles' assistant, and stated that in connection with his letter of July 6, instead of getting into a lengthy exchange of communications, that Mr. Dulles would prefer to talk over with him the subject matter of my letter of July 6.
